

CAN WE TRY THIS?

"special edition"

ten for #10

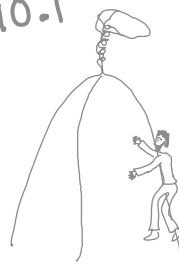

#10.0

(It might be 7:00, but it could actually be 7:15. better get moving, just in case!)

a watch that doesn't give the exact time—it gives the current time plus a random number of minutes. Sometimes it is one minute ahead, sometimes seven minutes, sometimes four.

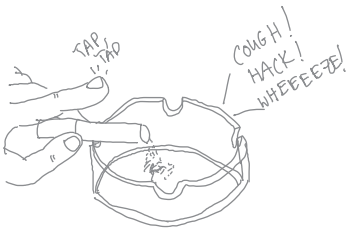

#10.1

an art exhibit where you can touch all the art, just not with your hands

#10.2

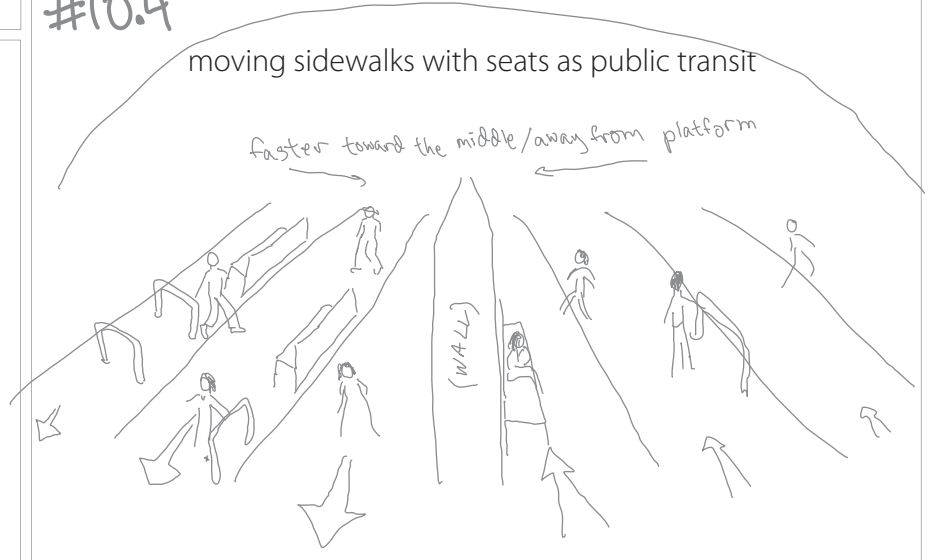

#10.3

chair (+desk?) that cycles periodically among different positions, so that the sitter does too!

#10.4

moving sidewalks with seats as public transit

#10.5

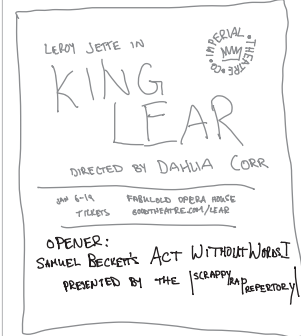

#10.6

tracing paper sticky notes: for tracing (of course) and also for user-testing "greyed-out" software interface elements

#10.7

opening acts for theater

(like rock concerts) to give an audience to short plays, young companies, and experimentation

#10.8

Does this ever happen to you?

I want to be able to do this:

Go to source of sound!

#10.9

a smartphone app that just does this...
